Strategic Growth

Directing and Leading for Quality

As you identify your key leaders' personality types, you can ensure that you have the right balance in your organization in order to take it to the next level. Understand who you have on your team and how to get the most from each of them. You'll also learn how to get the right people into the right positions, how to recruit, manage and keep volunteers to help your organization grow.

Communication & Worship

Excellence in Expression

Learn how preaching & worship can work together to effectively communicate the message of Christ. Synergy in the pulpit is critical to building momentum and sustaining growth in your ministry or business. This session will stretch your skills as a public speaker or worship leader and help you focus and obtain the objective of your worship experiences each week. (This is a favorite for both ministry and business leaders)

Change Dynamics

Organizational Definition and Balance

Dr. Rutland expounds on Leadership vs. Management. He shares how leadership is about doing the right thing, and management is all about doing things right. While he addresses how to balance leadership with management to maximize your team's potential, you'll learn valuable principles to steer your organization toward sustained growth.

Transformational Management

Strategic Leadership for Growth

Learn how to effectively lead those around you, communicate ideas and expectations accurately and manage organizational finances. Learn to turn the ship for organizational growth. This session focuses on many aspects of transformation including but not limited to building momentum, board management, leadership, communication and vision, and finances.
